Legend

- (1) The body marked (A) controls directly the activities of (B), which in turn controls the political activities of all divisions of the Armed Forces. A Dega Politike (C) exists in each division of the Armed Forces; the example chosen is the Division of Coastal Defense, Durrës. This body is also known as the Seksioni Agjitproporit dhe i Partis of a division. The first term is more correct, the second term more usual. A Political Section (D) exists in any regiment. A Basic Party Organization (a) and a Basic BRPSH Organization (b) exists either in the regiment or in another unit depending directly on (C). The Party and BRPSH units (1) for the various batteries depend on the basic organizations superior to them.
- (2) A Regimental Political Section (D) consists of three persons, all Antar Partie (Party Members). These persons are appointed by the Dega Politike of the superior Division Headquarters. They include:
- Shefi Seksionit Politik (Chief) - in rank a major, captain 1st class or captain 2nd class.
- Zavendes Shef Sek. Politik (Deputy Chief) - in rank a captain 1st class or captain 2nd class.
- Antar Seksionit Politik (Member) - in rank a toger (lieutenant) or N/toger (sublieutenant).
- (3) The Org Baze Partis Punes Reparti Ushtarak X...Y...(a) in the various regiments or other division units each consist of six persons elected by Party members. These members elect the members designated by the superior Political Section. These six persons are all Party members or candidates. They include:

Secretary - rank may be from soldier up to colonel, depending on years of membership in the Party.

Five members who compose the Byroja Politike (Political Bureau) - ranks may be from soldier up to major, depending on years of membership in the Party.

- (4) The Grup Org Baze Partis Punes Bateria 1..2..3.. etc (a - 1) in the various batteries or lesser units each consist of one person, a Secretary, who is ostensibly elected by the other Party members. He is either a Party member or candidate. In rank he may be an NCO or even a soldier.
- (5) The Grup Org Baze e Rinis Reparti Ushtarak X...Y...(b) in the various regiments or other division units each consist of two persons who are members of the BRPSh and also either Party members or candidates. These persons are ostensibly elected by the members of the BRPSh unit. They include:

President - rank, an Aspirant (if an officer), an NCO or a soldier.

Secretary - rank, a soldier or an NCO.
- (6) The Grup Org Baze e Rinis Bateria 1...2...3...etc (b - 1) in the various batteries or lesser units each consist of one person, a Secretary, who is appointed by the members of (b) in accordance with the directives of (a). This person is a member of the BRPSh and normally a Party candidate.
3. "The Komiteti Partis Punes Rrethit (Regional Party Committee) of any region has no authority whatsoever over the various Dega Politike and Seksioni Politike within that region. All Party matters within the Armed Forces come under the ultimate authority of the Political Directorate of the Ministry of People's Defense and its superior body, the Political Section of the Central Committee of the Albanian Labor Party.

Mission and Privileges of the Labor Party within the Armed Forces

4. "The particular responsibilities of Party members and Party candidates within the Armed Forces include:
  - (a) To study 'Stalinist military art'.
  - (b) To set a military and political example for all other military personnel.
  - (c) To be vigilant in following Party orders.
  - (d) To report to direct Party supervisor any criminal activity, eg knowledge of a person trying to gather military information.
  - (e) To expose reactionary elements who have infiltrated into the People's Armed Forces.
  - (f) To show physical endurance during military training and maneuvers.
  - (g) To watch, control and guide military comrades in technical and practical military training.
  - (h) To attend a monthly Party meeting and make regular payments of membership fees.
5. "The privileges accorded Party members and Party candidates within the Armed Forces include:
  - (a) Commission as an NCO or an officer. The minimum requirement for a commission as an Aspirant is membership in the BRPSh.
  - (b) Exemption from sentry duties; may be in charge of sentries.
  - (c) Appointment to responsible posts; eg administrative secretary (Sekretar Administrata), responsible for food and clothing, etc.
  - (d) Relatively easy passage of compulsory military service.
  - (e) Priority for leaves and off-duty permits and longer leaves - these depend on the issue of the Fleta-Leje document.

6. "The particular responsibilities of members of the BRPSH in the Armed Forces include:

- (a) As with Party members and candidates, to study 'Stalinist military art', to set a military and political example for other military personnel, to be vigilant in following Party orders, to be tireless in performing military duties, to work and guide military comrades in their technical and practical military training.
- (b) To incur no disciplinary punishments.
- (c) To take perfect care of arms and equipment.
- (d) To set an example in cleanliness and personal hygiene to other military personnel.
- (e) To be a perfect marksman.
- (f) To attend the BRPSH monthly meeting and to pay membership fees regularly.

7. "The privileges accorded members of the BRPSH in the Armed Forces include:

- (a) Opportunity to attend the Shkolla e Officeravet Rezerve upon completion of normal military term. [redacted] that 75% of the soldiers who are BRPSH members are sent for reserve officer training.
- (b) Minimum requirement to be commissioned an Aspirant.
- (c) Priority in achieving NCO status.
- (d) Priority in obtaining leaves and off-duty permits.
- (e) Less sentry duty than the normal soldier.

Procedure to Obtain Membership

8. "No military man is either urged or required to join the BRPSH or the Labor Party. The preparatory responsibility for attracting worthy members to these organizations rests with the Grupi Agitatorvet (Agit-prop Groups) which exist only in the various Political Sections of regiments and in the dependent Org Base Partis Punes Reparti Ushtarek. There were 30 persons with Agit-prop duties at the Coastal Artillery School in Durres. The Agit-prop groups consist of Party members and candidates and leading members of the BRPSH. They have the specific assignment of making propaganda in favor of the Party. When they consider a soldier of sufficient maturity to join the BRPSH or to become a Party candidate, they recommend him to the secretary of the Basic Party Organization of the regiment or unit. If that official agrees, the Agitator advises the soldier to file a normal application. Every agitator receives from his Party Basic Organization a monthly pocket pamphlet called Shenime per Agitator (Agitator Instructions). This is printed by the military printing press, Shtypshkronia Ushtarake, on Rr Elbasanit in Tirana, opposite the Lidhja Kulturele Sh-USSR (Soviet-Albanian Cultural Association).
